PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

Highlights

Vicky Wallace

PRINCIPAL

Dear Parents and Community Members, I hope this message finds you well. I am thrilled to share several exciting highlights from our school community this month!

Teacher Award

Firstly, I'd like to acknowledge the wonderful work of Mrs Withford. Last week she attended a ceremony to receive the Executive Director's Excellence Award. This is a great privilege as only three teachers were selected in our Mooney Mooney Network. Congratulations Mrs Withford! Our school and students are so lucky to benefit from your expertise, commitment, and dedication.

Sydney North Dance Festival

A huge congratulations to our amazing dancers who recently performed at the Sydney North Dance Festival. Their performances were nothing short of outstanding, showcasing their hard work, dedication, and talent. We are truly fortunate to have the incredible Mrs Lukic leading our dance program, whose commitment to nurturing our dancers is evident year after year.

Schools Spectacular

2 students from our school Will S and Nixon G have been offered a role in this year's Schools Spectacular and we are excited to have them involved. Congratulations boys!

Festival of Instrumental Music

Additionally, our talented recorder group had the opportunity to shine at the Festival of Instrumental Music, where they performed beautifully, accompanied by the wonderful Mrs Dewar. These achievements reflect the outstanding opportunities our school provides, fostering a love for the arts and encouraging our students to express their creativity.

NSWPSSA Rugby League

One of our students, Jasper C, represented Sydney North at the NSWPSSA Rugby League state championships. Throughout the championship, Jasper exhibited exceptional skill, sportsmanship, and a team-first attitude that truly brought out the best in his teammates. The team finished in 6th place and played outstanding rugby league, with four players from Sydney North earning selection into the NSW State Squad. Well done, Jasper!

Athletics Carnival

I would also like to extend my congratulations to all the students who participated in our recent school athletics carnival. Despite a rainy start and a few technical issues, the day turned into a fabulous experience for everyone who remained to cheer on our athletes. A heartfelt thank you to Mr Griffin for his exceptional organisation, as well as to our teachers, fantastic pre-service teachers, and amazing parent helpers. Your support and enthusiasm made a significant difference, and we truly could not have done it without you!

Sports and Recreation Camp

Lastly, our Stage 2 students have just returned from a fantastic three-day adventure at the Sports and Recreation Camp on Milson Island. This camp provided an incredible opportunity for our students to engage in outdoor learning and participate in various sports activities that fostered teamwork and cooperation. A huge thank you to Mrs Beckedahl, Mr Parkinson, Mrs. Dewar, Mrs Kolarik and Mrs Denyer for their dedication and for giving up their time to organise and attend the camp.

Reports

As we look ahead, I want to inform you that Semester 1 academic reports are scheduled to be sent out on SchoolBytes this Thursday. Please be patient with us as this is the first time we will be using SchoolBytes for reports. If you experience any technical difficulties, please send an email to the school, and we will do our best to resolve any issues as quickly as possible. Additionally, if you haven't already downloaded your child's previous reports from Sentral, we strongly encourage you to do so before you lose access.

As we approach the holidays, I wish everyone a safe and relaxing break. We look forward to reconnecting with our families in Term 3!

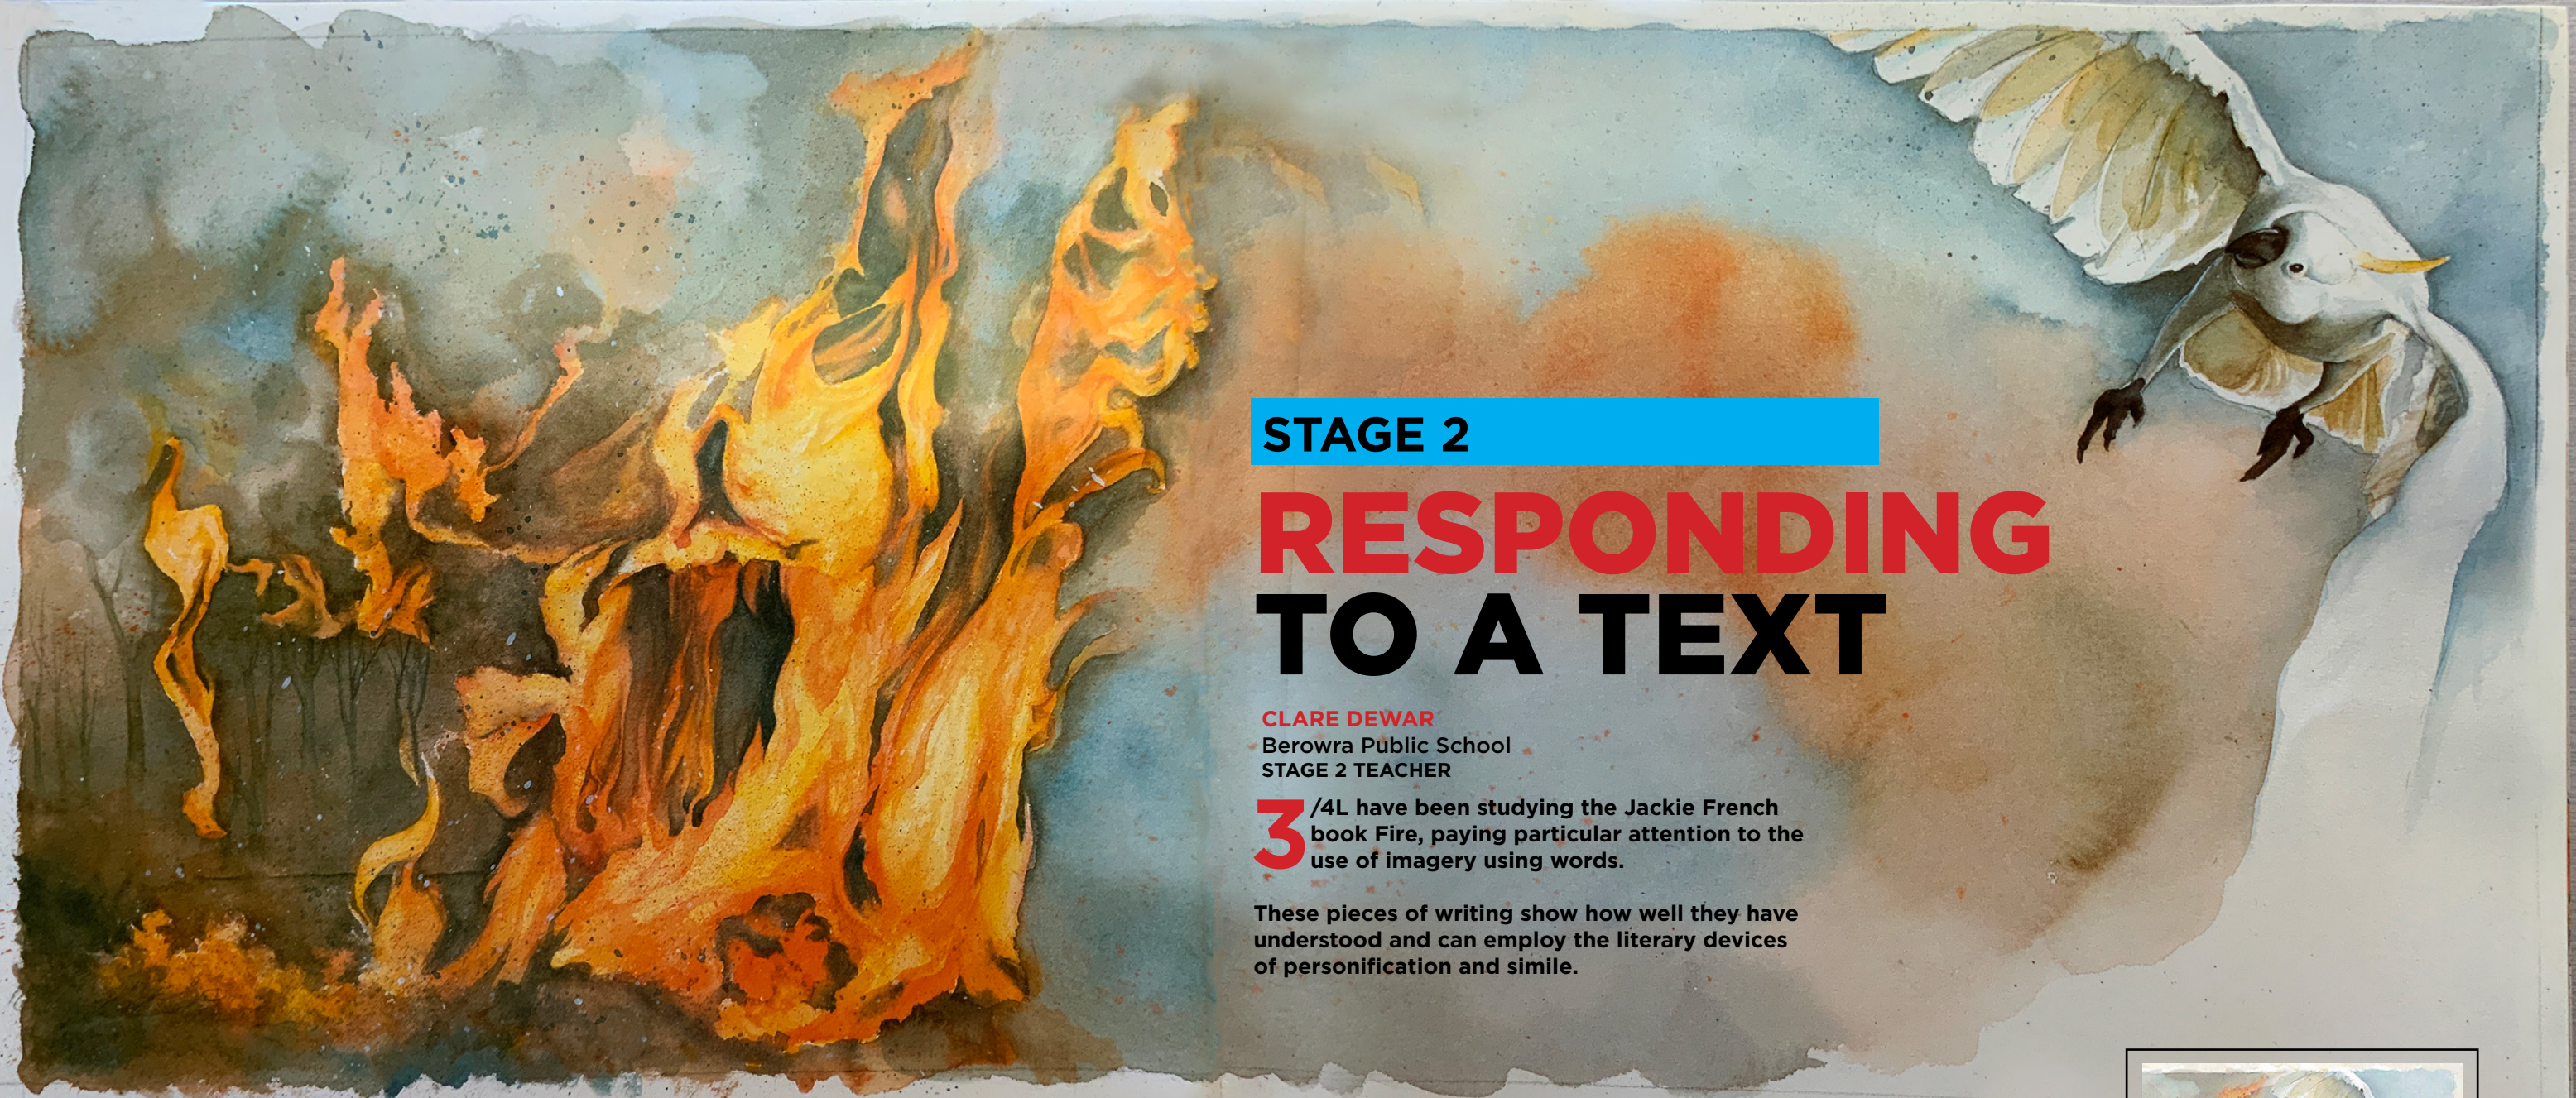

Thank you for your continued support of our school community.

Warm regards,

CLARE DEWAR
Berowra Public School
STAGE 2 TEACHER

3/4L have been studying the Jackie French book Fire, paying particular attention to the use of imagery using words.

These pieces of writing show how well they have understood and can employ the literary devices of personification and simile.

Fire

*Flames laughing, licking earth's children.
Houses getting baked by fire's breath.
Flames crept up trees, burying them down.
Earth crying. No rain to scare the best away.*

REMY 3/4L

Fire

*Flames spreading like people running into different directions.
Flames slowly walking up the trees like playing hide and seek.
Flames creeping up the trees, trees are gasping for air but it's hopeless.
Fire chuckling in evilness, trees crying for help but no help to be found.*

CINDY 3/4L

Fire

*Fire dances with loud laughter while burning everything it sees.
The fire spreads as if someone was spreading jam on toast.
Fire cooks up the bush well. Fire snickers while playing hide and seek.*

LILA 3/4L

Fire

*Red fire bleeding, is loving al the screaming.
Trees are crying, the fire is lying.
Cars are driving away away to get rid of all the pain.
Buildings burning, smoke hurling, trees burning, people hurting.*

RUDY 3/4L

Inspired by the bushfires that have affected many Australians, Fire is a moving and sensitive story of a natural disaster as seen through the eyes of a cockatoo. The fire mercilessly engulfs homes and land, leaving a devastating path of destruction. But from the ruins, courage, kindness and new life grows.

RESPONDING TO A TEXT

5/6A ARE READING RABBIT,
SOLDIER, ANGEL, THIEF BY KATRINA
NANNESTAD.

THE STUDENTS WERE ASKED TO WRITE A LETTER HOME FROM ONE
OF THE CHARACTERS IN THE BOOK.

WITHIN THEIR LETTER THEY ARE TALKING ABOUT WHAT HAS BEEN HAPPENING AND HOW MEETING
SASHA HAS IMPACTED THEM

RABBIT, SOLDIER, ANGEL, THIEF

Dear Papa,
I don't actually think I'm invincible anymore. My head to my toes are sore and bruised and my legs are going to collapse.
There is this new boy Sasha who recently joined the Red Army. I think he brought out the joy in all of us and acts like the bravest lion in Russia. I know he's been through a lot, and it stings my heart to think about how little Sasha must've lost his parents.
Now that I think about it, he is much happier than most of us about being apart of the army. But he hasn't actually experienced the worst of the worst yet. I hope he never does.
Sometimes I wonder why I'm still living - or how I'm still living. Poor Natasha has had to cure my many, many injuries. I feel like a bird with no wings. I guess that's part of how I became 'Invincible Ivan'. I wish I could act more like a father to Sasha, like you were to me. But it's hard. It's like a dagger through my heart every time I step out onto the battlefield and realise, I could be at home. Snuggling up on the couch with you and my little kitty Charlotte. I could never live with myself if I ever came home to you. So, I promise the biggest hug ever when I get home. I hope Mama would be proud.
Sending my love,
From Ivan, your beloved son.

Elodie B.

Dear Mama and Papa,
I miss you guys every day I live. It was so hard to leave home to come here, and I HATE how you guys are not here with me.
My life has been so hard on me ever since I left home, and there are so many camps here and it is tiring, and I'm exhausted, and my arms are dead.
Oh, and this World War 2 is a crazy hard type of work. This is the hardest work I'll ever do in my life.
But the thing is, and I don't know why but there are little bits of kindness, and I still believe that kindness can still grow - like a flower pushing through snow.
Ok let's get back to the letter and I believe in this quote. Ok back to what I was saying, I really miss you guys and every chance I get to see you guys I will take it because I really miss you.
Ok I will tell you guys some things that have happened on my journey so far. So, I was running through these trenches, and I was running so much faster than I used to back home. I don't know why I was running so fast but all I could hear was sticks snapping and it sounded weird and then...
When I got to the end of the trenches, I heard a lot of footsteps coming closer and closer towards me. The footsteps were getting louder, so I decided to run and that was a good idea.
It was a good idea that I ran because when running I looked back and there were German soldiers running towards me and it was scary and frightening.
We also went on heaps of camps that were hard, hard as a rick and they were tiring and I think this will be the hardest work I'll ever do in my life.
Now I am coming to the end of the letter, JUST KIDDING!! There is one more thing I want to tell you, the most important thing of all. I have also had a wonderful time and parts have been fun.
Love From,
Natasha

Jake R.

Major Scruff letter

Dear loving family,

I hope everything is going well back there. The war is absolutely terrible and I completely loathe it. Everyday I wish to be back home with you...my class...and everyone else I know and love

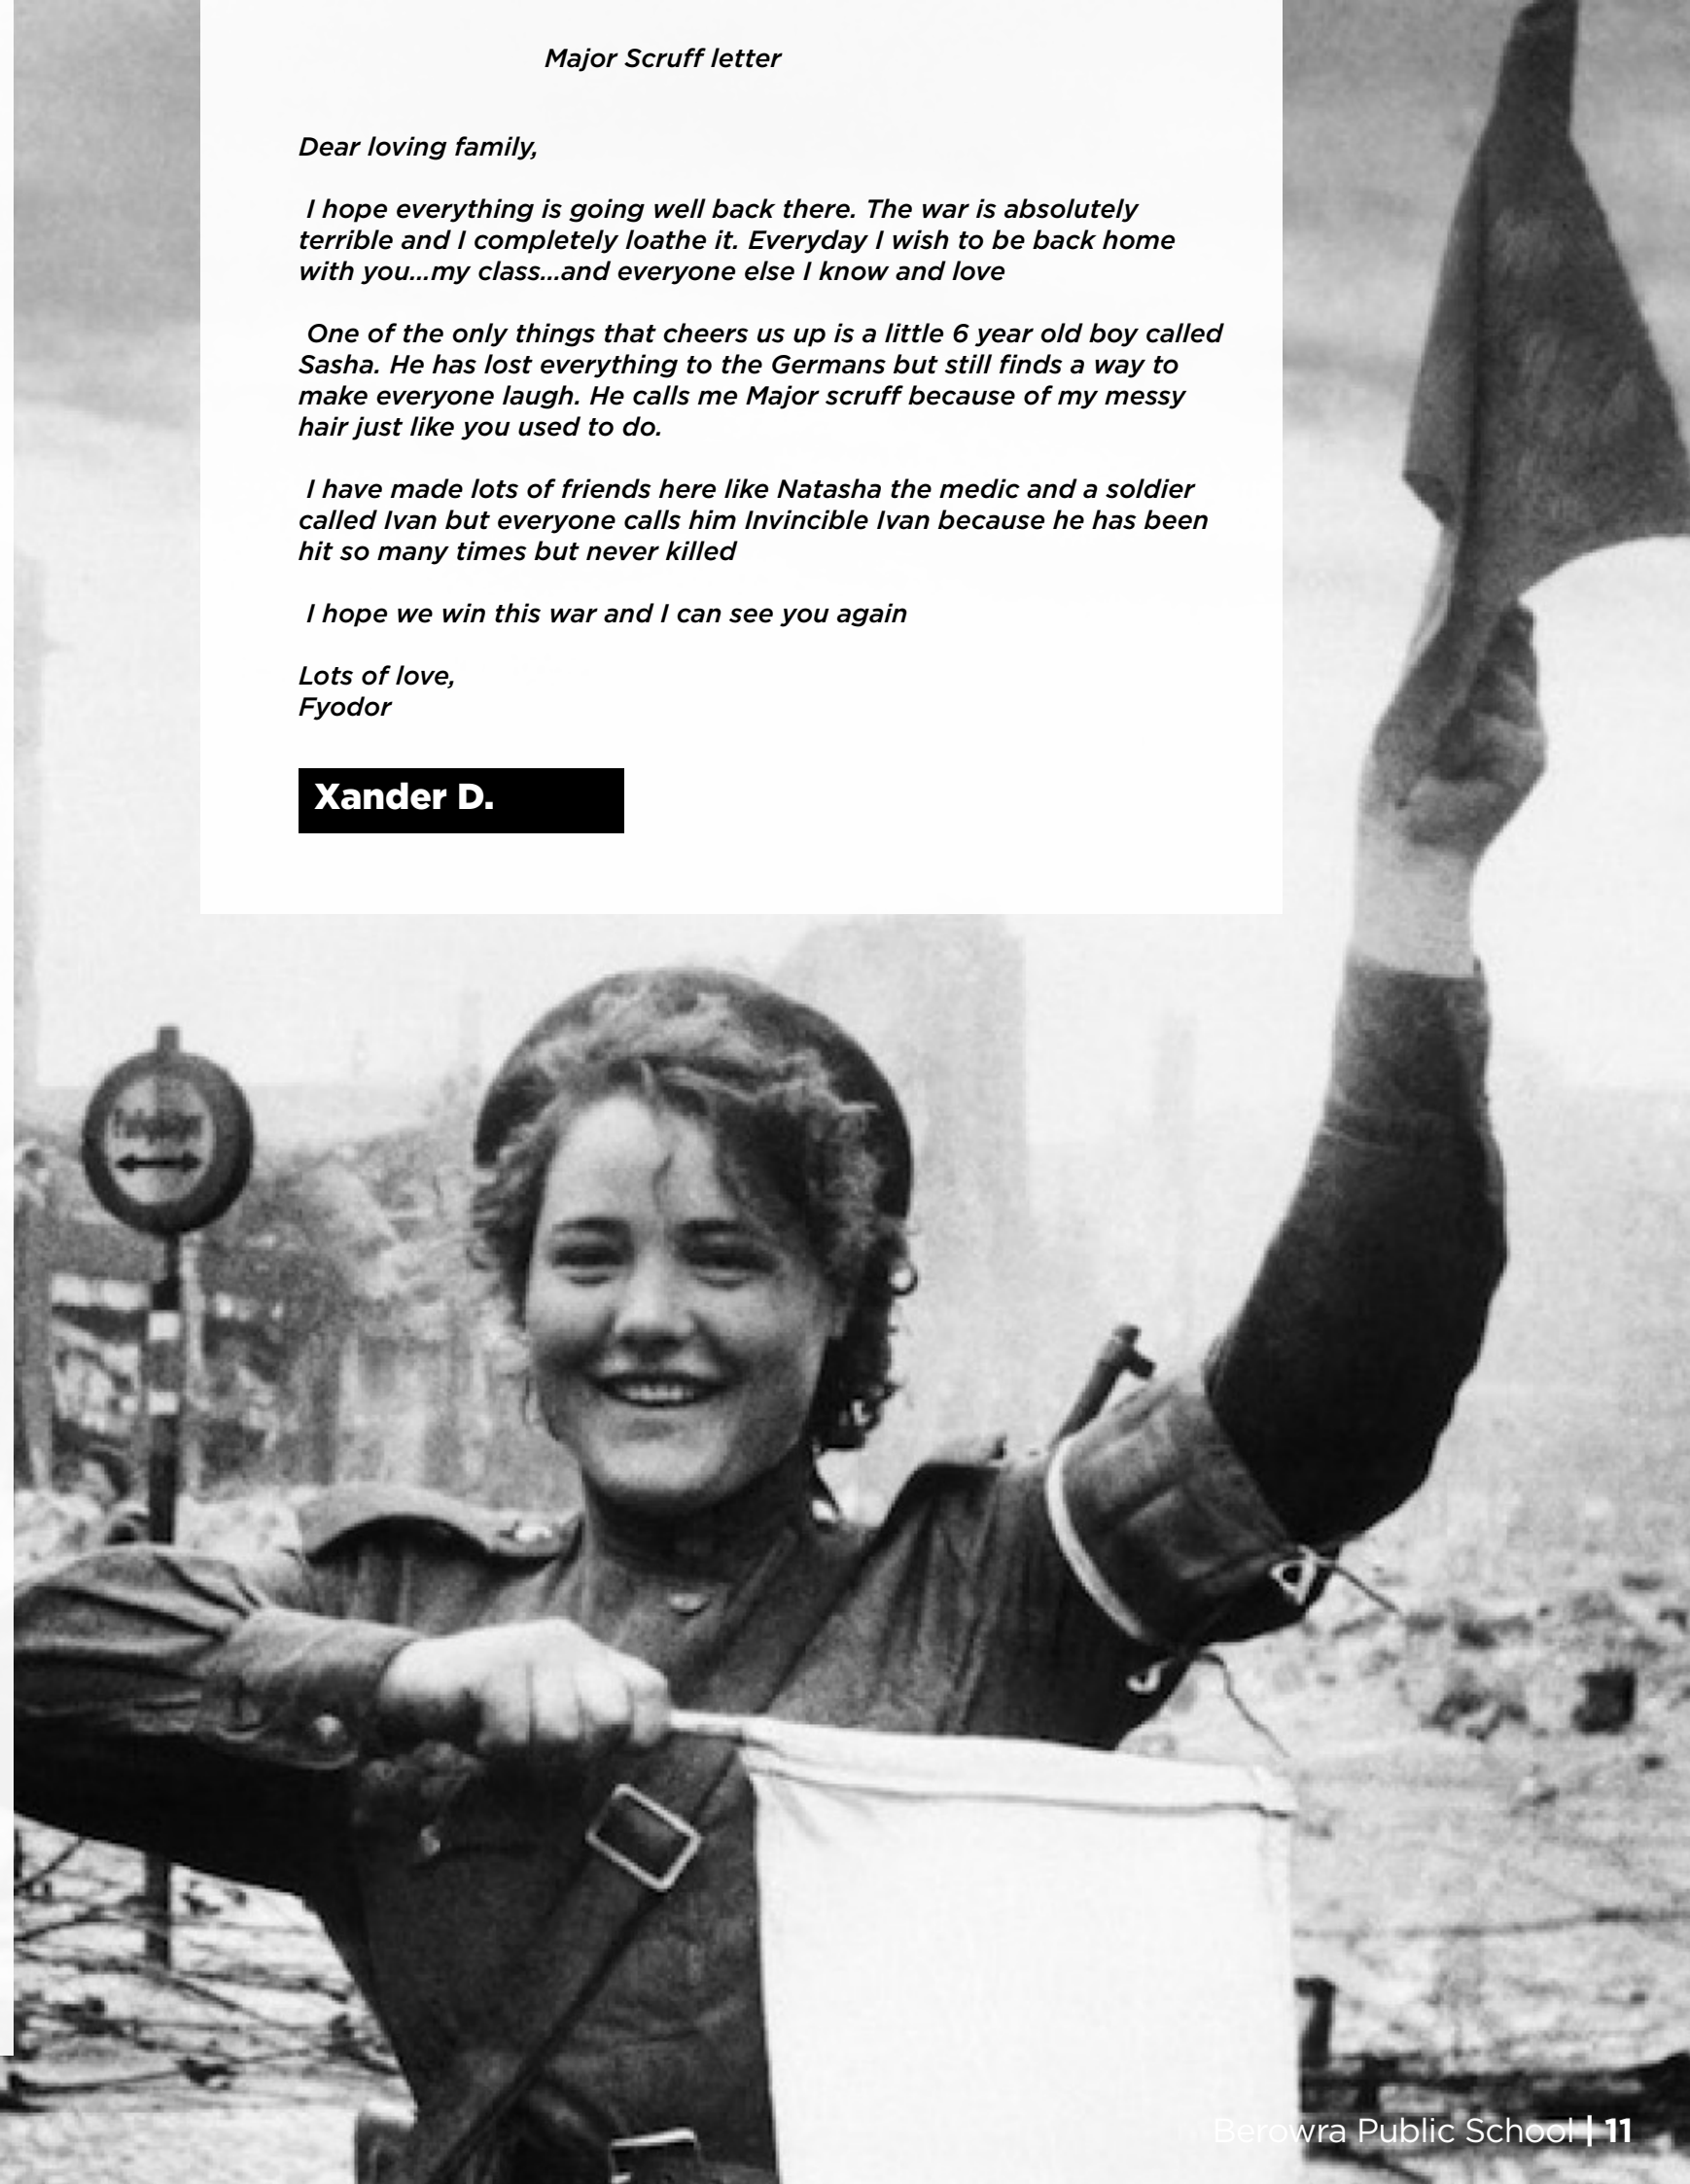

One of the only things that cheers us up is a little 6 year old boy called Sasha. He has lost everything to the Germans but still finds a way to make everyone laugh. He calls me Major scruff because of my messy hair just like you used to do.

I have made lots of friends here like Natasha the medic and a soldier called Ivan but everyone calls him Invincible Ivan because he has been hit so many times but never killed

I hope we win this war and I can see you again

Lots of love,
Fyodor

Xander D.

Dear mama and papa from Natasha 1942,

I hope you are safe during the war. As for me, I am fine for now at least. We had to leave our lovely camp for some beautiful enchanted forest which looks straight out of a fairytale .But oh it's not a fairytale, it's a warzone with bullets firing like fireworks in the dark big black sky

We have to dig underground houses where the walls crumble and shake.
At least I am sheltered.

There is a young boy called Sasha. He is young and quite traumatized and helpful. He helps me with sick patients. He kisses them on the head and holds their hand. I heal them like a story but oh it's very different.I try so hard not to crumble under all this pressure.I look like hulk a big and strong person but, i am just a small fly scared and small.
Anyway, let's talk more about Sasha.I feel extremely bad for him. He is obviously traumatized as he cries in his sleep.I hold his small chubby hand . Even though he is small and traumatized he still stays strong and stands tall.

There is a soldier at the camp he is tall and handsome .Invincible ivin they call him.He earned this nickname by surviving many attacks by the German nazies mind controlled by hitler.

Another soldier at the camp grumpy borries they call him. He earned this nickname by always being grumpy and cruel towards poor sasha.I despise him with all my heart.Sometimes when he is wounded I don't even want to heal him.. His icy cruel grey eyes stare and glare at everybody he meets.

Pushing him aside, things are going great. I hope you are well at home,
Love Natasha.

Bedhika B.

Dear Mum and Dad

I just want to tell you I am good. I have only a couple holes in me from bullets but I am still alive so that's good i guess.

We found a little boy whose name is Sasha. He is as cute as a dog but as brave as a bear. He is so resilient and fast. He helps all of the soldiers by getting their water and food, and guess what he is only 6.

I protected him with my life when they were bombing. I hopped on Sasha and saved him from the bombing. I am lucky I am still here after all that has happened.

When we were battling I would never die so i got a nickname. I got the nickname INVINCIBLE IVAN. I am losing my friends. They are dropping like leaves in autumn. SASHA HAS GOT A TIGHT BOND WITH THE DOG.

Parker J.

Dear little Sis,

I miss you so much. The Red Army is like a small, big family to me. My work gets extremely hard as I would represent the mum.

Recently a little boy stumbled into the army. He is so cute but very young. I can't imagine the pain he's been through. He helps me, passing bandages, kissing soldiers on the head. He is so sweet.

Invincible Ivan is a brave soldier. He's called invincible as he's been injured so much – too much. He is super kind and caring, like a father to Sasha, the little boy.

Anyway, I miss you so, so much. I know you will never get this but I'm glad you are protecting me from up above.

Lots of love,
Natasha

This fortnight's Smiling Mind focus is Strengths

At Home Activities

K-2

Drawing Strengths

Everyone has different strengths and it's important to notice and celebrate what is unique to each of us. Some people might have the strengths of fairness, leadership or teamwork. For this task, pick one of these strengths and draw a picture to show what that strength looks like.

Stage 2

Who I Admire

We often look up to and admire people who we want to be like. Who do you admire, and why? What strengths do they have that you look up to?

Stage 3

Spot your strengths!

It is important to notice and to celebrate your strengths. Write down and reflect on something you did well each day this week.
